

HOW TO APPLY FOR A RUSSIAN VISA

Dear applicants,

In order to obtain a Russian visa it is recommended to apply through the official Russian Visa Centers established to enhance the quality of service, as well as to facilitate visa procedure. Russian Visa Centers in India are located in New Delhi, Chennai, Kolkata and Mumbai.

Russian Visa Centers operated by Indra Visa Fiduciary Services Pvt. Ltd. are designated by the Russian Consular Institutions and are fully capable of accepting and processing documents required for a Russian visa forwarding them to the Russian Consular Offices from any individuals, organizations or companies (including travel agencies). Visa Centers can consult clients on visa application forms and other required documents, processing fees, time and other visa formalities.

The final decision to issue or refuse a Russian visa lies with the respective Russian Consular Institutions.

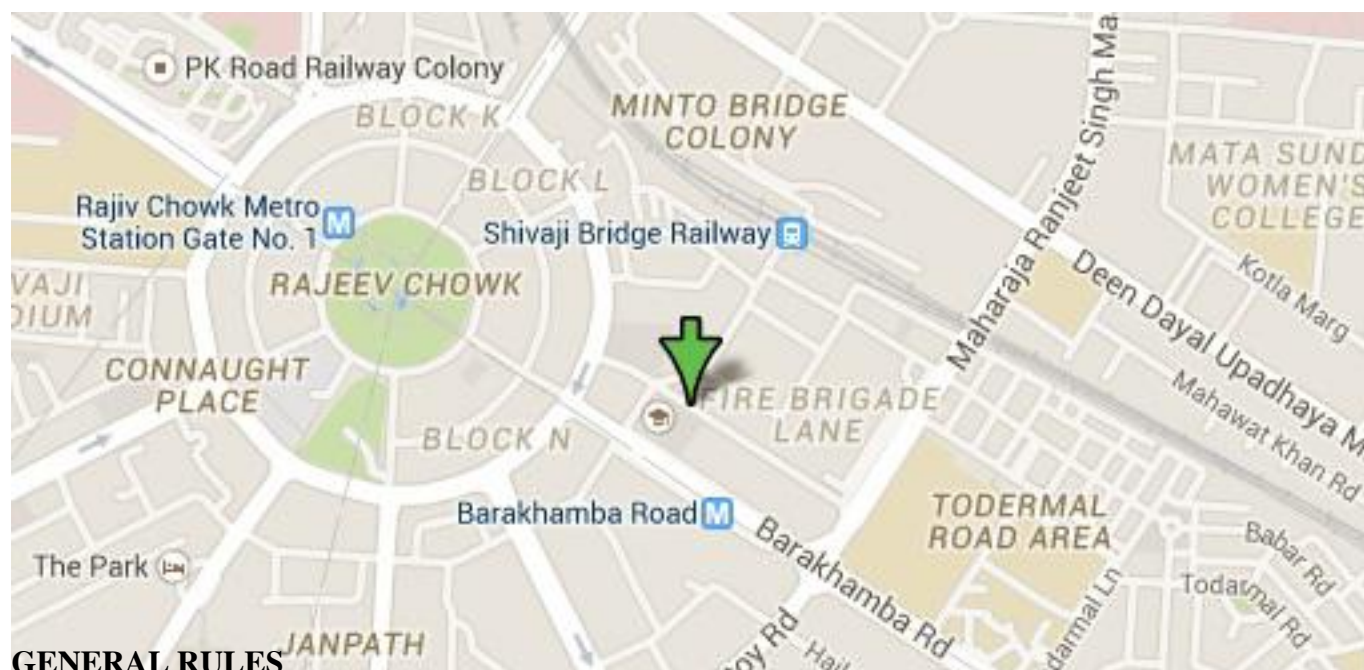

Companies and organizations, including travel agencies and any other entities applying for visas on behalf of customers or employees, regardless of the purpose of visit to Russia, must apply through the Visa Centers only. Individual foreign citizens have the right to apply directly to the Consular Division of the Embassy of the Russian Federation or the nearest Consulate General of the Russian Federation to obtain a visa for themselves and the closest relatives by making a prior appointment.

Certain categories of applicants including diplomats and officials can apply directly to the Russian Consular Institutions.

Russian Visa Centers in India collect service fee of INR 1150 per application. The service fee is separate from the consular fee payable to the Russian Consular Institutions.

If you have any complaints or comments against Russian Visa Centers in India you may address the Consular Division of the Embassy of the Russian Federation at Shantipath, Chanakyapuri, New Delhi-110021, or to the following email: indconru@gmail.com

Your questions and comments will be carefully considered for a comprehensive response.

GENERAL RULES

1. Permission to enter the Russian Federation is a courtesy of the State. The Embassy has the right to deny a visa with no explanations.
2. All legally capable applicants are to submit their documents in person.
3. Visa Charges are collected in accordance with the tariff established and published by the Embassy. Full tariff is available at the Visitor Section of the Consular Division.
4. Visa charges are paid to the Cashier of the Visa Section upon the Visa Officer's direction and in cash only. A receipt is issued to the applicant.
5. No refund will be done in case a visa is denied or granted for a shorter validity period than applied for.
6. The responsibility to check the receipt lies with the applicant. The receipt contains the amount paid, the type of visa and the tentative delivery date.
7. The receipt, given by the Cashier of the Visa Section after paying the visa fee, is to be presented to collect the passport on the delivery date.
8. The responsibility to check the personal data and other information in the visa lies with the applicant. Mistakes in the visas are rectified by reissue on the spot only if detected at the time of delivery, otherwise a new application for a new visa is due.
9. Visas are reissued at the expense of the side responsible for the mistakes.
